The Nepean Rideau Community Resource Centre (NROCRC) is a non-profit organization that provides a wide range of social services and programs to residents in the Nepean, Osgoode and Rideau areas of Ottawa. In collaboration with NROCRC, the Rural Ottawa Youth Mental Health Collective (ROYMHC) provides mental health education and support to youth in rural Ottawa. ROYMHC is a community-based organization that aims to support youth's mental health and well-being in the rural Ottawa area. The exact areas covered by NROCRC may vary depending on their programs and services, but generally, they serve the following communities:

- Barrhaven
- Osgoode
- Manotick
- North-Gower
- Rockland
- South

The Nepean, Rideau and Osgoode Community Resource Centre (NORCRC) is a non-profit organization that provides a wide range of social services and programs to residents in the Nepean, Osgoode and Rideau areas of Ottawa. In collaboration with NORCRC, ROYMHC provides mental health education and support to youth in rural Ottawa. ROYMHC is a community-based organization that aims to support youth's mental health and well-being in the rural Ottawa area. The exact areas covered by NORCRC may vary depending on their programs and services, but generally, they serve the following communities:

- Centretown
- Carleton Place
- Carling
- Centre Hastings
- Manotick
- Manotick
- North-Gower
- Rockland
- South

The following are the accompanied emerging needs of the NROCRC and the ROYMHC following COVID-19. With the following data collected on the NROCRC and the associated ROYMHC, through the analysis of the two organizations' annual reports, websites, reviews, and their social media accounts and content, these were the most prominent issues the organizations faced:

- Lack of funding
- Underserved
- Poor social media management
- Lack of community engagement
- Limited capacity due to reduced staff and space
- Limited access to resources in the rural areas they serve
- Limited access to resources in the urban areas they serve
- Limited community engagement
- Lack of in-house programs
- Poor communication management

The Rural Ottawa Youth Mental Health Collective (ROYMHC) provides various services to the mental health and well-being of youth in rural Ottawa. ROYMHC is a team of 12 partners invested in the mental well-being of rural Ottawa youth. Some of the services provided by ROYMHC include:

1. Mental health workshops
2. Youth-led support groups
3. Referrals to mental health professionals

The ROYMHC aims to promote mental health awareness, reduce the stigma around mental illness, and provide youth with the resources they need to maintain good mental health and well-being. Through these services and initiatives, ROYMHC aims to promote mental health awareness, reduce the stigma around mental illness, and provide youth with the resources they need to maintain good mental health and well-being.